

Certificate in Health Care Informatics

Program learning outcomes: What Will I Learn?

1. Use critical thinking skills to identify informatics solutions to improve health care delivery.
2. Participates as a member of an interdisciplinary informatics team responsible for the design, implementation, and management of an information management system.
3. Applies health care informatics knowledge and skills needed in the development, management, and evaluation of information systems.
4. Articulates health care informatics perspectives and issues in a professional role.

This program does not have sufficient results to present outcomes data at the program level. Data represented on this site includes information on programs that have been in existence longer than 3 years, and have available direct and indirect learning outcomes data on at least 20 students, or unless otherwise specified by specialized accreditation to require reporting of all results less than $n = 20$.