Before You Choose This UExcel Exam

Uses for the Examination

- Excelsior College, the test developer, recommends granting six (6) semester hours of lower-level undergraduate credit to students who receive a letter grade of C or higher on this examination.
- Other colleges and universities also recognize this exam as a basis for granting credit or advanced standing.
- Individual institutions set their own policies for the amount of credit awarded and the minimum acceptable score.

Exam-takers who have applied to Excelsior College should ask their academic advisor where this exam fits within their degree program.

Exam-takers not enrolled in an Excelsior College degree program should check with the institution from which they wish to receive credit to determine whether credit will be granted and/or to find out the minimum grade required for credit. Those who intend to enroll at Excelsior College should ask an admissions counselor where this exam fits within their intended degree program.

Examination Length and Scoring

The examination consists of approximately 100 questions, most of which are multiple choice; for samples of all the item types on this exam, see the sample items in the back of this guide. Some items are unscored, pretest items. The pretest items are embedded throughout the exam and are indistinguishable from the scored items. You will have two (2) hours to complete the examination. Your score will be reported as a letter grade.

Preparing for UExcel Exams

Take Charge of Your Own Learning

At Excelsior College, independent, self-directed study supported by resources we help you find is not a new concept. We have always stressed to exam takers that they are acting as their own teacher, and that they should spend as much time studying for an exam as they would spend in a classroom and on homework for a corresponding college course in the same subject area.

Begin by studying the content outline contained in this content guide, at its most detailed level. You will see exactly which topics are covered, and where chapters on those topics can be found in the Recommended Resources. You will see exactly where you might need to augment your knowledge or change your approach.

The content outline, along with the Learning Outcomes for this exam and recommended textbooks, will serve as your primary resources.

How Long Will It Take Me to Study?

A UExcel exam enables you to show that you’ve learned material comparable to one or more 15-week college-level courses. As an independent learner, you should study and review as much as you would for a college course. For a 3-credit course in a subject they don’t know, most students would be expected to study nine hours per week for 15 weeks, for a total of 135 hours.

Study Tips

Become an active user of the resource materials. Aim for understanding rather than memorization. The more active you are when you study, the more likely you will be to retain, understand, and apply the information.

The following techniques are generally considered to be active learning:

- preview or survey each chapter
- highlight or underline text you believe is important
- write questions or comments in the margins
- practice re-stating content in your own words
- relate what you are reading to the chapter title, section headings, and other organizing elements of the textbook
- find ways to engage your eyes, your ears, and your muscles, as well as your brain, in your studies
- study with a partner or a small group (if you are an enrolled student, search for partners on MyExcelsior Community)
- prepare your review notes as flashcards or create recordings that you can use while commuting or exercising

When you feel confident that you understand a content area, review what you have learned. Take a second look at the material to evaluate your understanding. If you have a study partner, the two of you can review by explaining the content to each other or writing test questions for each other to answer. Review questions from textbook chapters may be helpful for partner or individual study, as well.

Using UExcel Practice Exams

We recommend taking the first form of the practice exam when you begin studying, to see how much you already know. After taking the first practice exam, check your performance on each question and find out why your answer was right or wrong. This feedback will help you improve your knowledge of the subject and identify areas of weakness that you should address before taking the exam. Take the second form of the practice exam after you have finished studying. Analyze your results to identify the areas that you still need to review.

Although there is no guarantee, our research suggests that students who do well on the practice exams are more likely to pass the actual exam than those who do not do well (or do not take advantage of this opportunity).

Preparing for This Exam

Prior Knowledge
No previous knowledge of Spanish Language is assumed.

Using the Content Outline
Each content area in the outline includes (1) the recommended minimum hours of study to devote to that content area and (2) the most important sections of the recommended resources for that area. These annotations are not intended to be comprehensive. You may need to refer to other chapters in the recommended textbooks. Chapter numbers and titles may differ in other editions.

This content outline contains examples of the types of information you should study. Although these examples are numerous, do not assume that everything on the exam will come from these examples. Conversely, do not expect that every detail you study will appear on the exam. Any exam is only a broad sample of all the questions that could be asked about the subject matter.

Using the Sample Questions and Rationales
Each content guide provides sample questions to illustrate those typically found on the exam. These questions are intended to give you an idea of the level of knowledge expected and the way questions are typically phrased. The sample questions do not sample the entire content of the exam and are not intended to serve as an entire practice test.
Recommended Resources for the UExcel Exam in Spanish Language

The resources and materials listed below were used by the examination development committee to verify all the questions on the exam. Excelsior College recommends you use these resources as the most appropriate information when ordering textbooks from the college’s bookstore (see page 1 of this content guide). You should allow ample time to obtain resources and to study sufficiently before taking the exam, so plan appropriately and systematically.

A word about textbook editions: Textbook editions listed in the UExcel content guides may not be the same as those listed in the bookstore. Textbook editions may not exactly match up in terms of table of contents and organization, depending upon the edition. However, our team of exam developers checks exam content against every new textbook edition to verify that all subject areas tested in the exam are still adequately available in the study materials. If needed, exam developers will list supplemental resources to ensure that all topics in the exam are still sufficiently covered. Public libraries may have the textbooks you need, or may be able to obtain them for you through interlibrary loan to reduce textbook costs. You may also consider financial aid, if you qualify, to further help defray the steep cost of textbooks. A section on OER has been included in this guide to help you locate additional resources to augment your study.

Textbooks

The following textbook was used by the examination development committee to verify all questions on the exam.

This textbook may be purchased from the Excelsior College Bookstore.

Web-Based Resources

http://wps.prenhall.com/ml_zayas_arriba_6/

This is the basic companion Web site for the 6th edition of ¡Arriba! It features a complete audio program to enhance self-study.

Reducing Textbook Costs

Many students know it is less expensive to buy a used textbook, and buying a previous edition is also an option. The Excelsior College bookstore includes a buyback feature and a used book marketplace, as well as the ability to rent digital versions of textbooks for as long as students need them. Students are encouraged to explore these and the many other opportunities available online to help defray textbook costs.

A Word About Open Educational Resources

Open educational resources (OER) are educational materials available for study at no cost on the Web. Some OER are available for anyone to access any time. Others, such as Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs), require sign-up and are only available during certain windows. Please note that some MOOC providers offer certificates of completion or other products or services for a fee. No MOOC or other OER is a complete substitute for the content guide and officially Recommended Resources listed here in this content guide. However, by definition, MOOCs are essentially free of charge and include access to a main body of learning materials that may help you in your learning.

Being an independent learner preparing for credit by exam, you may not need any of the fee-based options that are offered elsewhere online. But if you are looking for a coherent academic course for self-study, lectures on specific topics, or audio or visual materials that fit your learning style better than print materials alone, a MOOC or other type of OER may be your answer. Keep in mind that none of these OER were designed by Excelsior, nor are they guaranteed to match the exam content outlines completely. They are simply another tool available in your study kit.

We highly encourage using the Recommended Resources. In the content outline, you will see that the topics in the exam are referenced to specific portions of recommended textbooks. Using OER alone will not ensure you’ve completely covered the content in the exam, or it may not cover some topics in sufficient-enough depth without the use of the formal, recommended textbooks.
If the OER course you choose does not include a textbook for reference and you do not have significant practical theory-based experience in the field of study, use a college textbook to ensure adequate preparation for the exam, and use the exam’s content outline as a guide.

Combined with comparable college textbooks, OER provides you with a variety of choices in knowledge sources and learning experiences, to enhance your understanding of the subject matter.

Choosing Open Educational Resources

Most sites for university-based OER can be searched through www.ocwconsortium.org and/or www.oercommons.org.

Sites that specialize in Web courses designed by college professors under contract with the website sponsor, rather than in Web versions of existing college courses, include:

- www.education-portal.com
- www.opencourselibrary.org (abbreviated as OCL)

We have included specific courses that cover material for one or more UExcel® exams from the sites in the listings above. It’s worth checking these sites frequently to see if new courses have been added that may be more appropriate or may cover an exam topic not currently listed.

In addition, sites like Khan Academy (www.khanacademy.com) and iTunes U feature relatively brief lessons on very specific topics rather than full courses. Full courses are also available on iTunes U (http://www.apple.com/education/ipad/itunes-u/). We have chosen a few courses and collections for this listing.

General Description of the Examination

The UExcel Spanish Language examination is based on material typically taught in a two-semester, six-credit (lecture only) course sequence in beginning Spanish. The content of the examination corresponds to course offerings such as College Spanish I or Elementary Spanish.

The examination measures basic Spanish language proficiencies in cultural skills (applying language proficiencies within authentic cultural contexts), listening comprehension (using audio cues), reading comprehension, verbal communication, and grammar.

No prior knowledge of Spanish language is required before beginning study for this exam.

Learning Outcomes

After you have successfully worked your way through the recommended study materials, you should be able to demonstrate basic competence in Spanish communication through:

• receptive skills – demonstrate the ability to comprehend written and spoken Spanish at an elementary level
• expressive skills – demonstrate the ability to recognize correct constructions in written and spoken Spanish at an elementary level
• cultural skills – demonstrate cultural awareness in responding to authentic materials from the Spanish-speaking world
Content Outline

The content outline describes the various areas of the test, similar to the way a syllabus outlines a course. To fully prepare requires self-direction and discipline. Study involves careful reading, reflection, and systematic review.

The credits awarded for a UExcel exam are comparable to a 15-week, college-level course. Independent learners should expect to study and review as much as they would for a corresponding college course. For a six-credit course in a subject they don’t know, students are usually expected to study nine hours per week for 15 weeks, which is a total of 270 hours. We offer this information to help you make a study plan that works for you. Every individual is different; you may need more or less time to prepare for the exam.

The major content areas on the Spanish Language examination, the percent of the examination, and the hours to devote to each content area are listed below.

The questions that follow will not be on the exam. They illustrate the style of questions found on this exam.

The examination will be administered in three separate sections. While the sections are not timed, we recommend that you budget your time as follows:

- verbal communication (listening comprehension)—50 minutes
- reading comprehension—40 minutes
- knowledge of grammatical and syntactic structures—30 minutes.

The questions that follow illustrate those typically found in this exam. Answer rationales can be found on pages 15–19 of this guide.

Listening Comprehension: Short or Long Selections

You will hear, through the headphones provided at the testing center, a selection in Spanish with some background information in English. In the samples below, all material preceding the actual questions will be audio only. You will not be able to read the text that is being spoken. Short selections may be a single voice speaking Spanish, while longer selections are usually a dialogue. Listen carefully, and then read the corresponding questions in your test and the four suggested answers. Based on the content of the situation you heard and your knowledge of the cultures of the Spanish-speaking world, select the most appropriate answer.

María took a trip to Puerto Rico to visit her family. She wrote the following letter to a friend about her trip. After reading the letter, select the appropriate answer to the questions provided.

¡Una carta para Carmen!

Carmen Valle
Calle Luz 34
Ponce, Puerto Rico
San Juan, 18 de octubre de 2008

Querida Carmen:

Espero que te encuentres bien. La semana pasada estuve en Puerto Rico pero no pude visitarte. Pasé todo el tiempo muy ocupada con mis primos visitando a la familia de mi padre que vive en la ciudad de San Juan. Como tú bien sabes son tres horas de distancia desde San Juan a Ponce y es un poco difícil llegar sin carro. En San Juan pude visitar la hermosa Catedral de San Juan, el Castillo del Morro, caminar por las hermosas playas del Condado y hacer varias compras. También pude probar las sabrosas helados de coco y comer algunos empañadas de mariscos. Por la tarde, mis primos y yo cenamos en el famoso restaurante “El Alí” que está cerca de la playa de Isla Verde y allí para mi sorpresa, pude conocer en persona a Jennifer López y a Marc Anthony. Nos tomamos unas fotos juntos y me dieron su autógrafo. Fue muy emocionante para mí haber visitado Puerto Rico después de tanto tiempo, visitar a mi familia, conocer a mis cantantes favoritos en persona, y sobretodo, haber podido saborear mi plato preferido, “pescado al mojito.” Te prometo que el próximo verano te visitaré y pasaremos unos días extraordinarios. Bueno, mi querida amiga, cuídate mucho y hasta siempre.

Cariños y un fuerte abrazo,

María

4) The distance is not four hours. It is three hours, as stated in the passage.
17. (III, IB)
1) The conjugated verb quieren should be followed by an infinitive.
2) The indirect object pronoun les should be placed in front of the conjugated verb puedo.
3) Deseo should read desea. The de between deseo and comprar is unnecessary. The indefinite article un is masculine and does not agree with the noun it modifies, cosa, which is feminine.
4) The sentence structure, vocabulary, and grammar are correct.

18. (III, IIF)
1) The sentence structure, vocabulary, and grammar are correct.
2) Gustas should be gusta. The adjective marrón should be placed after the noun color.
3) There are several problems in this version. Seda should be placed after vestido as in vestido de seda, and al gusto should be a su gusto to be correct.
4) The verb gustar, in this context, must be the singular gusta to agree with the subject el vestido. Also, this question is not addressed to the client, but to the salesperson herself per the subject pronoun yo.

19. (III, IIB)
1) This answer would give information on the number, not the price.
2) This answer is clearly not correct. There is a cost.
3) This answer correctly answers a question on price.
4) This answer would give information on the color, not the price.

20. (III, IIF)
1) This question asks for the color, not the shoe size.
2) The question correctly asks for the shoe size.
3) This question asks for the price, not the shoe size.
4) This question asks how many they have, not shoe size.

21. (III, IIF)
1) This is asking when, not if they accept credit cards.
2) The verb es is unnecessary here. Also, the salesperson would not ask if the client has a credit card, but rather how the client would like to pay.
3) This is the correct way to ask a client how he or she may want to pay.
4) The salesperson would not say that she yo is paying. In addition, the pronoun de is unnecessary.

22. (IIIA)
*1) Both inteligente and bonita are the correct forms of the words that agree with the feminine subject amiga in the sentence starter.*
2) Trabajador is the masculine form of the adjective. Because the sentence contains the feminine subject amiga, this choice is incorrect.
3) Extrovertido is the masculine form of the adjective. Because the sentence starter contains the feminine subject amiga, this choice is incorrect.
4) The article un is masculine. Again, because the sentence starter contains the feminine subject amiga, this choice too is incorrect.

23 (IID)
1) La azúcar (sugar) is a type of carbohydrate.
2) La galleta (cookie, cracker) is a carbohydrate.
3) La mantequilla (butter) is a fat.
*4) La zanahoria (carrot) is a vegetable.

24. (III.I)

2) Dígame is a formal command, to be used for persons addressed as usted.
3) Tome is a formal command, to be used for persons addressed as usted.
4) Ayúdeme is a formal command, to be used for persons addressed as usted.

correct answer
25.(IIIK)

1) Compraré is the future tense form of the verb comprar. It means I will buy. It is not the conditional form, which means I would buy.

2) Viajaría is the conditional form of the verb viajar. It means I would travel, and is correct in this context.

3) Te mudarás is the future tense form of the reflexive verb mudarse. It means You will move. It is not the conditional form, You would move.

4) Se jubilaron is the past tense form of the reflexive verb jubilarse. It means They/you (pl.) retired. It is not the conditional form, which means They/you (pl.) would retire.

26.(IIIG)

1) Jugaba agrees with the subject, yo, and is in the correct form of the verb, the imperfect, which refers to customary or habitual actions in the past.

2) Jugábamos does not agree with the correct subject form, yo.

3) Jugó is in the preterite tense. It is not used to refer to customary or habitual actions that have taken place in the past.

4) Jugué is also in the preterite tense. It is not used to refer to customary or habitual actions that have taken place in the past.

27.(III)

1) Addresses in Spanish are listed by street name first, followed by the number.

2) Here, the street number is placed in front of the street name, as is the convention in the United States. Addresses in Spanish are listed street name first, followed by the number.

3) The direct object pronoun nos should be attached to the end of the command visite, and the number “30” should appear right after the word número.

4) The direct object pronoun nos should be attached to the end of the command visita. In addition, the a before nos is grammatically necessary.

28.(III)

1) The demonstrative adjective todos (masculine and plural) does not agree with familia (feminine and singular), the noun it modifies.

2) The possessive for your is su, not ellos.

3) The sentence structure, vocabulary, and grammar are correct in this sentence.

4) The command here is a familiar tú command, but the possessive su is formal, used for persons addressed as usted. These two forms should agree. Also, alguno means someone, not something, as it should to make sense here.

29. (III)

1) The verb abres does not agree with the subject Cortefiel. Seven days in 24 hours is not a correct structure, nor does it make sense.

2) The store opens 7 days in 24 hours is an incorrect, absurd grammatical structure.

3) The verb abre agrees with the subject, Cortefiel, and the sentence structure is correct.

4) The verb abres does not agree in form with the subject Cortefiel, though the rest of the sentence is correct.

30.(III)

1) The adjective grande turns into gran only when placed before the noun it modifies.

2) The sentence structure, vocabulary, and all the agreements are correct in this sentence.

3) The indirect object pronoun le should be placed in front of the verb ofrecemos. The adjective gran (with the ending -de omitted), is properly placed before the singular noun it modifies. (Note that if grande is opted for, it follows the single noun.) In addition, no personal a is necessary.

4) The indirect object pronoun le should be placed in front of the verb ofrecemos. The long form grande is correctly used after variedad, but no personal a is necessary in the sentence.
31.(III)

1) Viajes agencia should be agencia de viajes.

2) The sentence structure, vocabulary, and all the agreements are correct in this sentence.

3) Viajes agencia would be a literal translation of travel agency, which is an incorrect construction in Spanish. The de after puede is unnecessary, as this verb does not require a following preposition in the syntax.

4) The correct translation for our is nuestra in this context, not de nosotros. Also, no article la is needed.
