Description of Training Organization

The mission of the Hennepin County Department of Community Corrections (DOCC) is to concentrate on Community Safety, Community Restoration and Offender Change. The objectives of the DOCC are risk focus, targeted interventions, client accountability, community centered operations, community and victim restoration, organizational responsibility and accountability.

The DOCC provides the Courts of Fourth Judicial District of Minnesota with information needed for making informed dispositions in Criminal and Family Court matters involving adults, juveniles and families.

The DOCC serves to protect the community by providing secured institutions to house adult and juvenile offenders who demonstrate behaviors that place the citizens of our community at risk.

DOCC staff supervises adult and juvenile offenders that are placed on probation or parole to monitor their behavior and insure they comply with the conditions of pre-trial release, probation and parole. These conditions often include therapeutic services for clients.

The DOCC engages in a number of joint efforts with the community to restore the victims of crime and successfully reintegrate offenders back into the community. All clients are either in our community or will return to it soon. Therefore, everything we do needs to involve the community as our partner in supervision, as a place of supervision, and as a locale into which our clients must reintegrate.

The DOCC’s success in increasing community safety is achieved by working with clients to reduce the safety risk they pose to the community. We accomplish our mission by using community centered, research based techniques that:

• Reduce offender risk by addressing offenders’ needs and helping them reintegrate into the community
• Repairing harm offenders caused in the community in general and to crime victims in particular
• Operate in a cost effective responsive manner.

The Hennepin County DOCC is the largest corrections department in the state of Minnesota, with 958 employees & over 900 volunteers, 3 Corrections Facilities (Adult, Juvenile Detention & County Home School), 4 Field Divisions (Adult, Juvenile Probation, & Family Court Services), 20 different sites, and over 30,000 clients. Revenue for the DOCC come from an overall budget (2004) of $85,514,657. (73% from local property taxes, 12.5% Community Corrections Act Subsidies, and 9.4% Other Federal/State/Local grants).

Departments within the Hennepin County DOCC:

Adult Field Services
Mission - Work with the Courts and communities to promote public safety, and provide for victim restoration by holding offenders accountable and providing opportunities for change through assessment and supervision.

The Division is comprised of an investigative section and a supervision section. Investigation includes Pre-trial Bail Screening, Conditional Release, Misdemeanor, Felony Intake and Investigation and Drug Court Probation. Supervision includes the Reporting Center, Restitution, Traditional Felony Supervision, Traditional Domestic Abuse Supervision, Conditional and Intensive Supervised Release and Fugitive Apprehension.

• 2004 Approved Budget - $21,937,168
• 2004 Approved Full-time Staff - 266.9

Adult Corrections Facility
Mission - Operate a safe, secure and efficient facility promoting offender change.

The ACF is the most secure confinement facility serving convicted adult offenders in Hennepin County sentenced to serve up to 1 year. Commitments are primarily received from the Hennepin County District Court. The majority of the population on any given day is serving a conviction for misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor. Maximum capacity at the ACF is 601.

ACF operational units include: Men’s section, ACF North (Women’s Section), Work Study Release section, and home monitoring unit.

Programming at the ACF is aimed to assist the reintegration of inmates into the community. Vocational work readiness and educational opportunities such as obtaining a GED or English as a second language better prepares for that reintegration. Chemical health services are offered because we all know that there is a significant correlation between substance abuse and crime. The violence prevention program is aimed to work with domestic abuse offenders.

There are three different productive day programs operating.
• Private Sector Program - inmates go into the community to work with companies who provide temporary labor services. The companies commit to hire these individuals upon release.
• Industry Program - Private sector programs contract with the ACF to perform mostly light industry jobs within a factory setting on the ACF grounds.
• Institutional jobs - Inmates work within the institution to assist in its overall operations. This includes work in food services, laundry, grounds upkeep, the golf course and the greenhouse.

• 2004 Approved Budget - $17,039,685
• 2004 Approved Full-time Staff - 178.3

Programming at the ACF
• Vocational/Work Readiness
• Education - GED, Adult Basic Education, English as a second language
• Chemical Health - Create Inc.
• Mental Health
• Prevention Services
• Productive Day - Private Sector Work Program
Court judges also order staff to complete in-depth custody and/or visitation evaluations with recommendations to assist the Court in their decisions when mediation fails in paternity cases. FCS staff assist families in reaching resolution on child custody and visitation issues utilizing mediation whenever possible. In many cases Family Court Services assist in mediating disputes. Although it is often assumed that most of these matters arise as a part of divorce proceedings, in reality half of the referrals are related to other matters such as custody disputes. The Family Court Services program provides a structured work option within the County’s justice system that is responsible to the need for offender accountability and compensates victims in the community for the harm done by juvenile and adult offenders.

The STS program provides a sentencing option to the Court and an offender management option to DOC. Carefully selected non-violent juvenile and adult offenders are assigned to closely supervised work crews that work on a wide range of community improvement projects throughout the County. Work crew assignments can be: an alternative to paying a fine or financial restitution for those offenders who lack financial resources; an alternative to serving jail time and reducing the amount of time served; sole sanction probation; response for an offender’s failure to cooperate with the terms and conditions of their probation. In all instances it is premised on the restorative justice principle of compensating victims in the community for the harm done by those who commit crimes.
